ABSTRACT GUIDELINES

Before submitting, please carefully read all submission guidelines. Multiple submissions of the same research are not allowed. The submission process consists of the following steps.

ABSTRACT SUBMISSION DEADLINE: July 1, 2016 11:59PM MST

TITLE. Take special care when entering the title as it will be published exactly as submitted. Titles should be brief, clearly indicating the nature of the presentation. Enter the title in the “title” field only and do not enter the title in the body of the abstract.

- Capitalize the first letter of each word except prepositions.
- Do not place a period at the end of your title.

Examples of a properly formatted title

- Decreased COL11a1 Levels Effect Gene Expression in Chondrocytes
- Flow Rate of a Magnetic Shape Memory Micropump
- Electrostatic Interaction between ATP and Lysenin Channels Modulates the Conductance

AUTHORS. In order to proceed with the abstract submission please make all authors aware that their names appear on the abstract. Authors include research mentors and/or project mentors. Each institution and author in the conference program will be referenced with superscript numbers and include the institution’s name (as shown below). Please use only capital letters for the name of each institution listed in the abstract.

1Hannah Li, 2Jackson Ramsey, 3Haley Schilling, 4Caleb Stanford, and 5Dr. Marion Scheepers (Mentor)
POMONA COLLEGE¹, BAYLOR UNIVERSITY², UNIVERSITY OF MASSACHUSETTS – AMHERST³, BROWN UNIVERSITY⁴ AND BOISE STATE UNIVERSITY⁵
ABSTRACT TEXT (included in the 900 character limit - spaces are not counted). The abstract limit is 900 characters excluding the title, names of authors/coauthors and authors’ affiliations. Abstracts exceeding the character limit will be considered “incomplete.” Type your abstract in Microsoft Word first and use the character count feature to verify the 900 character limit is not exceeded, then copy and paste into the text box.

- No graphics or schema are allowed in abstract submissions.
- Do not use new technical words, laboratory slang, or words not defined in a dictionary. Define any abbreviations the first time they are used.
- Your abstract should include a one to two sentence introduction, the description of the methods used, the results obtained, and a conclusion, including its significance.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF FUNDING SOURCES. Acknowledgement of funding in the abstract is required and helps to demonstrate our utility to funding sponsors. Please include all funding affiliations that apply. Consult with your mentor for the appropriate grant number that should be used in the abstract.
