Part II. Syllabus Statement

Boise State's Foundational Studies Program provides undergraduates with a broad-based education that spans the entire university experience. BUSCOM 201 satisfies 3 credits of the Foundational Studies Program's Communication in the Discipline requirements. It supports the following University Learning Outcomes, along with a variety of other course-specific goals.

ULO 1. Write effectively in multiple contexts for a variety of audiences
ULO 2. Communicate effectively in speech, both as a speaker and listener

BUSCOM 201: Business Communication will help students improve their abilities to analyze business communication situations and develop appropriate communication strategies. This course helps to achieve the goals of the Foundational Studies Program by focusing on the following course learning outcomes.

After successful completion of this course, you will be able to:

- Design, draft and edit a variety of business message types (good news/routine; bad news; persuasive; and employment-based).
- Use a reader-friendly approach to balance the needs of the audience with the desires and objective of the writer.
- Develop and give an oral business presentation using effective visual aids.

Part III. Design for Accessibility

In the space below, briefly describe plans for providing access to course materials and activities (or equivalent alternatives) to all students in adherence with the Americans with Disabilities Act. Although these plans may vary from instructor to instructor, the descriptions provided below should be representative of intended departmental and instructor practices. (See example statements appended to this form.)

BUSCOM 201: Business Communication: As we have in the past, BUSCOM instructors will make all appropriate and necessary accommodations to all students in adherence with the Americans with Disabilities Act, including provisions for additional time for testing, alternate document formats and types, approved transcriptionists in case of hearing impairment, among other interventions/accommodations.

Part IV. Evidence of Quality Course Design

Please use the table below (column headings for this table should not be changed) to provide evidence that the course has been carefully designed and is clearly aligned with Foundational Studies Program desired ULOs. All sections of the course should share similar student learning outcomes. Teaching and Learning Activities and Assessment Methods may vary from instructor to instructor. Please use the table to report representative strategies that may be used. Assessment activities used for reporting to the Foundational Studies Program should be consistent across different sections of the course.

Please see below.
